

STRAIGHT QUESTIONNAIRE

1. What do you think caused you to be straight?
2. When and how did you decide that you were straight?
3. Is it possible that being straight is just a phase that you may grow out of?
4. Is it possible being straight stems from a neurotic fear of others of the same sex?
5. If you've never slept with a person of the same sex, is it possible that all you need is a good gay or lesbian lover?
6. Who have you told that you are straight? How did they react?
7. Why do straight people feel compelled to seduce others into your life-style?
8. Why do you insist on flaunting your heterosexuality? Why can't you just be what you are and keep quiet about it?
9. Would you want your children to be straight knowing the problems that they'd face?
10. A disproportionate majority of child molesters are straight. Do you consider it safe to expose children to straight teachers?
11. With all the societal support marriage receives, the divorce rate is spiralling. Why are there so few stable relationships among straight people?
12. Why do straight people place so much emphasis on sex?
13. Considering the menace of overpopulation, how could the human race survive if everyone were straight?
14. Could you trust a straight therapist to be objective? Don't you fear (s)he might be inclined to influence you in the direction of her/his own leanings?
15. How can you become a whole person if you limit yourself to compulsive, exclusive heterosexuality, and fail to develop you natural, healthy gay potential?
16. There seem to be very few happy straight people. Techniques have been developed that might enable you to change if you really want to. Have you considered trying aversion therapy?

- Adapted from "Are You Still My Mother" by Gloria Guss Back. Warner Books, 1985. Questionnaire attributed to Martin Rochlin, Ph.D. West Hollywood, CA.